DECLARATION OF NEVILLE HEDLEY

I, Neville S. Hedley, declare as follows:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein and that the Exhibits to this Declaration are true and accurate copies of internet sites and social media accounts that I personally accessed and viewed, and, if called as a witness, could and would testify competently thereto.

2. My full legal name is Neville Spencer Hedley. I reside in North Carolina and my business address is Hamilton Lincoln Law Institute, 1629 K Street, NW, Suite 300, Washington, DC, 20006. My email address is ned.hedley@hlli.org.

BACKGROUND ON BLOCKADE ORGANIZERS

3. On or about March 1, 2024, I searched the Internal Revenue Service website, www.IRS.gov, which contains an Exempt Organization Business Master File Extract (EO BMF); www.IRS.gov/charities-non-profits/exempt-organizations-business-master-file-

extract-eo-bmf. The file “provides information about an organization from the Internal Revenue Service’s Business Master File.” This list functions as a Tax-Exempt Organization Search tool.

4. The tax-exempt organization list is broken out by state and by region. The regions are: Region 1 Northeast area; Region 2, mid-Atlantic and Great Lakes area; Region 3, Gulf Coast and Pacific Coast areas; and Region 4, including International areas and Puerto Rico.

5. States and Regions are determined by the filing address and represent the location of an organization’s headquarters. The records are also sorted by the Employee Identification Number (EIN).

6. The version of the Tax Exempt Organization Search tool I reviewed noted that it had been updated on February 13, 2024.

7. Each State or Region exempt organization list can be downloaded into an Excel spreadsheet from the tool on the IRS website.

8. The IRS website also has a Tax Exempt Organization search feature, www.apps.irs.gov/app/eos/, which allows individuals to search for exempt organizations and access relevant information like determination letters or filings of IRS Form 990s. On September 9, 2024, I accessed this site and performed a search for the organizations and entities referenced in the complaint accompanying this declaration.

9. The Internal Revenue Service permits organizations that are tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code (I.R.C.) Section 501(c)(3) to sponsor other organizations, entities or programs that are not formal nonprofit entities. It is a contractual relationship between the sponsoring tax-exempt organization and the entity being sponsored, thereby allowing that entity to attract tax-deductible funding without having to formally become a tax-exempt organization. The sponsoring entity maintains control over the donated funds, but such funds are restricted and dedicated to furthering the sponsored entity’s purpose and goals. See Gene Takagi, Fiscal Sponsorship: A Balanced Overview, Nonprofit Quarterly (Jan. 28, 2020) (attached as Exhibit 1).

10. Based on internet searches and media reports, I determined that there were six organizations that had organized an action on February 1, 2024 in Washington, D.C. to protest the armed conflict between Israel and Palestinians in the Gaza Strip. The six entities or organizations that sponsored the action were: Occupation Free DC; the Palestinian Youth Movement (PYM); Harriet's Wildest Dreams (HWD); Dissenters DMV; the Party for Socialism and Liberation (PSL); and Maryland2Palestine (MD2Palestine). www.instagram.com/p/C2h-zjauR9t/?img_index=1 (Exhibit 2)

11. Palestinian Youth Movement (PYM) maintains a website, www.palestinianyouthmovement.com. The website describes PYM as “a transnational, independent, grassroots movement of young Palestinians in Palestine and in exile worldwide as a result of the ongoing Zionist colonization and occupation of our homeland.” (Exhibit 3)

12. PYM maintains an account on the social media platform X (formerly known as Twitter), www.X.com/palyouthmvmt, with a username of @palyouthmvmt. It also maintains an Instagram account, www.instagram.com/palestinianyouthmovement, with a username of @palestinianyouthmovement, with a back-up account, www.instagram.com/palyothmvmt, and a username of @palyouthmvmt. The PYM website has icons that link directly to these respective social media accounts.

13. PYM's website notes that it has 14 chapters across North America. One of those chapters is in Washington, D.C., which has its own Instagram account, www.instagram.com/dmvpym/, with a username of @dmvpym.

14. PYM is unincorporated and is not listed as a 501(c)(3) entity with the IRS. The PYM website has a page stating its vision and what it does. www.palestinianyouthmovement.com/about (Exhibit 4) The web page notes that PYM has a National Executive Board and lists emails to contact board members, but the email addresses are generic emails with no individual names. For instance, the email for the General Coordinator is gc@pymusa.com.

15. On PYM's homepage of its website there is a tab marked "Donate." During the relevant time, clicking the donate icon would direct a person to a webpage hosted by goodbricks.org. This page allowed individuals to make online donations that purport to be tax deductible. The bottom of the page contained text stating "All donations are tax deductible. You will receive a follow-up email with the relevant info. We also accept checks payable to 'WESPAC Foundation' and mailed to 77 Tarrytown Rd, Suite 2W, White Plains NY 10607. Please indicate 'PYM' in the memo line." (Exhibit 5)

16. WESPAC Foundation maintains a website, www.wespac.org. WESPAC Foundation describes itself as "a leading force for progressive social change in Westchester County, New York since 1974" and that it has "been educating, agitating and organizing for a more just and peaceful world, an end to militarism and racism and a more fair economy that works for all." The bottom of the webpage lists the address of the WESPAC Foundation as 77 Tarrytown Rd., White Plains, NY 10607. (Exhibit 6)

17. A search for WESPAC Foundation on the exempt organization list for New York State shows that WESPAC Foundation, Inc., is an exempt organization under I.R.C. Section 501(c)(3), and the address on file with the IRS is 77 Tarrytown Road, Suite 2W, White Plains, NY 10607.

18. During the relevant time, PYM was a project of WESPAC Foundation and WESPAC acted as the fiscal sponsor and the formal legal entity to accept tax-exempt donations for PYM pursuant to I.R.C. Section 501(c)(3). WESPAC also acted as the fiscal sponsor for similar organizations such as National Students for Justice in Palestine (NSJP) and US Palestinian Community Network (USPCN).

19. Sometime after April 22, 2024, PYM altered the donation page on its website which reflects a new fiscal sponsor, Honor the Earth, which according to information on file with the IRS, is a 501(c)(3) exempt organization with an address of 607 Main Avenue,

Calloway, MN 56521. The revised PYM donation page still links to goodbricks.org, and notes that paper checks should be made “payable to ‘Honor the Earth’ and mailed to 1430 Haines Ave STE 108 #225, Rapid City, SD, 57701.” www.goodbricks.org/cause/palestinianyouthmovement.com/donate-pym (Exhibit 7). This is the same address listed on the bottom of Honor the Earth’s website. www.honorearth.org (Exhibit 8)

20. Honor the Earth’s website lists its Board Members, one of whom is Lenna Zahran Nasr; www.honorearth.org/board. (Exhibit 9) Nasr’s biography notes that she lives in Austin, Texas and “currently serves as a lead organizer with Palestinian Youth Movement.” (Exhibit 10) On information and belief, Nasr is also known as Courtney Lenna Schirf and Lenna Schirf, who has a LinkedIn profile under the name Lenna Schirf and indicates that she lives in Austin, Texas, www.linkedin.com/in/clschirf/. (Exhibit 11) Schirf, aka Nasr, was named as a defendant in the case Helman et al. v. Codepink Women for Peace, et al., No. 24-cv-5704 (C.D. Cal., Dkt. 18, Aug. 16, 2024), which alleges that Schirf, in her capacity as a leader for PYM, was involved in a violent protest outside a synagogue in Las Angeles, California which violated the FACE Act, 18 U.S.C. § 248(a)(2).

The bottom of the page notes that those who wish to donate by check should mail checks to P.O. Box 589, Berkeley, CA 94701. In that action, the activists used a convoy of cars flying Palestinian flags to impede and severely slow traffic on the Parkway approaching the airport. The defendants proudly publicized the action on social media accounts. (Exhibit 29.)

The high production quality video also included video footage from local news broadcasts showing the blockades, one of which noted that law enforcement had been fooled into believing that the action would only be at Union Station because of the “decoy” flyers that had been published in the days leading up to February 1, 2024. www.instagram.com/p/C249bHtu9C5/ (Exhibit 48.)

68. The accounts on the social media platforms Facebook, X and Instagram associated with the six entities that organized the February blockades contain other posts or reposts similar to the posts referenced herein. These posts contain many of the same or similar images and videos that publicized the action prior to and on February 1, 2024. Likewise, the social media accounts of allied entities like Shut Down DC (@shutdownc) and USCPR amplified the organizers’ message by posting or reposting videos and images of activists blockading traffic in the District on February 1, 2024.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the forgoing is true and correct.

Fiscal Sponsorship: A Balanced Overview

Gene Takagi

January 28, 2020

This article was first posted online on January 19, 2016.

Fiscal sponsorship is an option that may be available to a person, group, or business to attract charitable funding without starting a nonprofit. It may allow an individual artist to fund the creation of a mural, a group to hold a crowdfunding campaign for pediatric cancer research, or a manufacturer to create and distribute products to regions devastated by a recent natural disaster.

When done right, fiscal sponsorship is a valuable alternative to starting a nonprofit that produces private and public efficiencies through shared administration and fewer nonprofits requiring fiduciary and regulatory oversight.

But when done wrong, fiscal sponsorship may result in an individual or for-profit company inappropriately deriving a private benefit from charitable contributions. This may occur when the fiscal sponsor acts as a mere conduit for contributions to flow to the individual or company without exercising the required control and oversight.

A Definition

The term fiscal sponsorship broadly refers to a number of contractual relationships that allow a person, group, or business to advance charitable or other exempt activities with the benefit of the tax-exempt status of a sponsor organization. These relationships are cogently described in Greg Colvin's seminal book, Fiscal Sponsorship: Six Ways to Do It Right. The most widely used models of fiscal sponsorship for charitable projects are:

- Comprehensive (referred to by Colvin as "Model A"), in which the assets, liabilities, and exempt activities collectively referred to as the project are housed within the fiscal sponsor; and

- Pre-approved grant relationship (referred to by Colvin as "Model C"), in which the project is run by a separate entity funded by the fiscal sponsor.

How Fiscal Sponsorship Works

Donations to fiscally sponsored projects are directed to a tax-exempt fiscal sponsor. Most commonly, the fiscal sponsor is a public charity exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and a qualified recipient of charitable contributions that are deductible to the donor. The donations intended to support a particular project are treated as restricted funds dedicated to furthering that project's charitable purpose.

The fiscal sponsor must then decide how to use those funds. It may not cede its ultimate control and decision-making authority over the funds to the project leaders. But the fiscal sponsor may delegate management of the funds to specific employees, contractors, or volunteers of the fiscal sponsor (comprehensive fiscal sponsorship). Alternatively, it may grant the funds to a suitable grantee that it vetted earlier (pre-approved grant relationship fiscal sponsorship).

Comprehensive Fiscal Sponsorship

In the comprehensive model, the party entering into the fiscal sponsorship agreement with the fiscal sponsor is generally giving up all ownership and control of the project to the sponsor and retaining only the right to enforce, amend, or terminate the agreement and have the project transferred to another qualified fiscal sponsor. In contrast to the fiscal sponsor, the other party to the agreement is not a tax-exempt entity able to directly receive deductible charitable contributions and is likely not properly registered to solicit charitable funds or assets. Most often, it's just some form of steering committee with minimal activity of its own, which helps minimize any risk that might otherwise be borne by its members.

When working on the fiscally sponsored project, the individuals associated with the other party to the agreement serve as employees, volunteers, or other agents of the fiscal sponsor. Accordingly, if they are fundraising for the project, they are fundraising on behalf of the fiscal sponsor as agents of the fiscal sponsor. Similarly, if they are managing the activities and affairs of the project, they are doing so as agents of the fiscal sponsor, which may afford them the protection of the sponsor's insurance.

In the comprehensive model, the assets and liabilities of the project are the assets and liabilities of the fiscal sponsor. The fiscal sponsor takes on the project, and all of its risks, because it advances the sponsor's own charitable mission. Typically, in light of all of the administrative burdens and costs associated with the project and to ensure its own organizational health, the fiscal sponsor charges an intra-organizational administrative fee to the restricted fund dedicated to the project's charitable purposes.

A fiscal sponsor providing comprehensive sponsorship can serve as an effective and efficient vehicle for incubating a new charitable project, testing an innovative idea, implementing a program with a fixed time frame, and hosting a collaborative effort among charities or funders.

Pre-Approved Grant Relationship

In the pre-approved grant relationship model, the party entering into the fiscal sponsorship agreement with the fiscal sponsor is the sponsor's grantee. Unlike with the comprehensive model, the project is owned by the grantee, not by the fiscal sponsor. Accordingly, the project's assets and liabilities belong to the grantee, which is responsible for its own tax and filing obligations.

Generally, the individuals associated with the grantee serve as agents of the grantee when working on the project. But when they are fundraising for the project, they are doing so as agents of the fiscal sponsor. The fundraising must be carried on by the fiscal sponsor because the grantee lacks the tax status to allow for deductible contributions or private foundation qualifying distributions.

The key to this model is to ensure the fiscal sponsor is not serving as a mere conduit for donors and foundations to direct contributions and grants to the fiscal sponsor's grantee. While the fiscal sponsor can accept contributions and grants with a purpose restriction on how they are used, the fiscal sponsor must have ultimate discretion and control on whether to use such contributions and grants itself or re-grant them out to another entity, not limited to the grantee whose representatives may have raised such funds in the capacity as agents of the fiscal sponsor.

The intended grantee is vetted and pre-approved by the fiscal sponsor prior to any fundraising for the purposes of the project. So long as the grantee has not breached the fiscal sponsorship agreement, the fiscal sponsor will ordinarily grant the funds raised for the project to the grantee, less some agreed upon amount it retains as an administrative fee. While the fiscal sponsor has the variance power to direct such funds to another organization to advance the same charitable purposes, it has a business reason not to exercise such power except under egregious circumstances.

A fiscal sponsor providing pre-approved grant relationship fiscal sponsorship can facilitate broader grantmaking to individual artists producing works to be introduced to the public for noncommercial purposes, nonprofits without an IRS determination of 501(c)(3) status, and discrete charitable programs of for-profit social enterprises. Unlike the fiscal sponsor, such grantees may not be qualified recipients of deductible charitable contributions.

In addition, many, if not most, private foundations have internal rules prohibiting them from making grants to such grantees in part because complex tax laws require them to exercise certain due diligence procedures and threaten them with stiff penalties for a failure to properly comply. In contrast, a private foundation may more safely make a grant to a qualified fiscal sponsor so long as it does not require the sponsor to act as a mere conduit for its grants to flow to a non-exempt grantee.

Fiscal Sponsorship Administration Fee

A portion of the funds raised to advance a particular project's purpose is typically retained by the fiscal sponsor as an administrative fee. But the fiscal sponsor must account for the significant administrative burdens and costs and the risks associated with acting as a fiscal sponsor to a project. For comprehensive fiscal sponsors, such burdens generally include the management and/or administration of charitable solicitations, donations, grants, human resources (including payroll and benefits), volunteers, financial reporting, audits, government filing requirements, and appropriate risk management tools (e.g., insurance, legal counsel).

In many cases, particularly with smaller projects, the costs associated with fiscally sponsoring a project are higher than the administrative fee. This may be acceptable so long as the fiscal sponsor believes that the project's value in advancing the sponsor's mission is worth such net expense. But regardless of whether the administrative fee covers the additional costs, the fiscal sponsor must provide proper management and oversight over the project.

Where Things Go Wrong

Some nonprofits offer fiscal sponsorship as a means for generating additional revenue without adequately managing or overseeing their projects. In a comprehensive fiscal sponsorship, the fiscal sponsor should have the appropriate infrastructure and resources one would reasonably expect of the legal operator of the project. Consistent with such expectation, the fiscal sponsor's delegation of duties to the project leaders should follow only after sufficient due diligence of such individuals and their planned activities. Additionally, the fiscal sponsor should ensure it has appropriate policies to guide the project leaders' actions, maintain oversight of the operations, and protect the charitable assets.

Where a fiscal sponsor neglects its responsibilities, a project can be operated in a manner inconsistent with applicable laws and/or beyond the sponsor's capacity. This scenario can easily come back to haunt a fiscal sponsor and its leaders if the project's activities (1) result in an unexpected liability, like one stemming from a lawsuit, penalty, or fine; (2) trigger additional registration, licensing, or reporting requirements; (3) fall outside of the sponsor's stated purpose in its governing documents; or (4) attract significant negative publicity.

Oversight of a project's activities by regulators and, indirectly, by donors, also becomes more challenging if the sponsor consolidates all of its projects in its information returns and other reports. Accordingly, while the onus is on the fiscal sponsor to properly manage its comprehensively sponsored projects, the additional layer of protection against misuse of charitable assets can be compromised if the sponsor does not keep proper records and the project becomes "hidden" among all of its other projects.

A fiscal sponsor without sufficient capacity may also jeopardize the assets raised for each of its programs by misusing or misdirecting those assets to pay for its general administrative costs or other inappropriate expenses. NPQ has previously covered such scenarios.

Accordingly, a project's founders seeking fiscal sponsorship should be as selective in choosing an appropriate fiscal sponsor as a fiscal sponsor is in choosing a project. But it would be a mistake to use a fiscal sponsor's administrative fee as the primary selection criteria. More important are the fiscal sponsor's financial health, key personnel, and understanding of its legal responsibilities as a fiscal sponsor. The National Network of Fiscal Sponsors' guidelines for both comprehensive and pre-approved grant relationship fiscal sponsorship are outstanding resources to help assess whether a fiscal sponsor's practices and agreements reflect such proper understanding.

Conclusion

From a legal perspective, a comprehensively sponsored (Model A) project of a fiscal sponsor is generally no different from an internal program of any nonprofit with the exception of the rights the parties may have to transfer the program to another qualified successor nonprofit. And a pre-approved grantee of a fiscal sponsor housing the sponsored (Model C) project is generally no different from a grantee of any nonprofit that elects to grant funds to an individual or nonexempt entity, which is a permissible form of grantmaking for any charity so long as it is done with appropriate restrictions on use.

Fiscal sponsorship, when appropriately structured and implemented, is a valuable alternative to formation of a nonprofit organization, particularly where the sustainability of a separate entity is highly questionable, the charitable endeavor has a relatively short life span, or the project founders lack the capacity to properly administer a compliant nonprofit, tax-exempt organization. While there will always be stories of abuses, as is the case in every field, the problem lies in the implementation and not the lawful practice of fiscal sponsorship done right. Fiscal sponsors must be diligent in helping to educate the field and the broader community to preserve and best utilize this important and often misunderstood form of collaboration.

PYM TORONTO RESPONDS TO ONTARIO GOVERNMENT'S CENSORSHIP OF PALESTINIAN VOICES
10/18/2022

Last July, a video about the Israeli occupation of Palestine, which was created by a high school student for his civics class a few years ago, was removed via pressure from the Ontario education minister due to accusations of it being antisemitic and biased. The York Region District School Board removed the video from the online class's curriculum, bowing to false and harmful accusations that Palestinian perspectives are considered controversial in classrooms. The video was recently shown again in an Ontario classroom for discussion in a social studies class at global issues, which was met with the same response and the Ontario government once again removed the video.

At the end of June 2020, the Syrian regime's Damascus government announced its plans to turn the remains of Yarmouk Palestinian refugee camp into an urban neighborhood of privatized high-rise buildings to be placed for sale to the highest bidder. The execution of this plan would result in the permanent erasure of the camp, which is considered the capital of the Palestinian struggle due to its cultural and political significance in Palestinian resistance, identity in exile, and aspirations for return and freedom.

The Palestinian Youth Movement (“PYM”) is a transnational, independent, grassroots movement of young Palestinians in Palestine and in exile worldwide as a result of the ongoing Zionist colonization and occupation of our homeland. Our belonging to Palestine and our aspirations for justice and liberation motivate us to assume an active role as a young generation in our national struggle for the liberation of our homeland and people. Irrespective of our different political, cultural and social backgrounds, we strive to revive a tradition of pluralistic commitment toward our cause to ensure a better future, characterized by freedom and justice on a social and political level, for ourselves and subsequent generations.

OUR VISION

Due to the accumulating challenges as a result of the ongoing Zionist colonization and occupation of our homeland, our determination to fulfill our aspirations for return and liberation are stronger than ever. Guided by principles of justice and liberation, we recognize that our struggle is inherently connected with the struggles of all oppressed and indigenous peoples. We affirm that our struggle is deeply rooted in the Arab regional context that must be freed of neocolonialism in order for the complete liberation of Palestine to become a tangible reality.

Our vision is to mobilize Palestinian youth, strengthen our role and assume responsibility and accountability to our national struggle. In order to revitalize our participation in the Palestine liberation struggle, we build upon historical and lived experiences that allow us to understand our various current realities while defending a strong common vision for Palestine.

WHAT DO WE DO?

PYM is a space that brings together Palestinian youth from all over the U.S and Canada. with diverse views and various political, cultural and social backgrounds in a collective process of decision making, leadership building, and action. By cultivating the skills of young Palestinians we work toward empowering the Palestinian grassroots movement locally and ultimately around the world. We do this by:

- Initiating grassroots, community-based organizing on the ground, particularly addressing the context and needs of the different Arab/Palestinian communities we live in while maintaining PYM's Return and Liberation framework of struggle.

- Organizing specialized Palestinian youth workshops and local, national and international programming aimed at developing leadership skills and critical analysis among our members and Palestinian youth through a rigorous educational curriculum we continue to develop through our biennial Summer Schools.
- Celebrating, commemorating, and honoring our culture, heritage and national historical events simultaneously via local community-based events.
- Participating in forums, conferences, events, and initiatives that seek to challenge colonialism, racism and injustice globally through a joint-struggle approach.
- Growing and developing with third world solidarity allies to maintain and build relationships tying the Palestinian struggle for liberation among all indigenous peoples.
- Sustaining our organization via grassroots fundraising and donations from our generous supporters.

She is a proficient researcher and has been recently featured in articles written in both English and Arabic.

In Austin, Lenna brings together individuals and activists from a plurality of backgrounds to build a strong movement for Palestine. While she is an organizer with deep roots in her local community, she also brings experience from International struggles and relationships.

In 2018, she co-organized and participated in the historic Indigenous Delegation to Palestine, which brought Palestinian youth living in exile on Turtle Island and young Indigenous land-defenders and water-protectors (Kumeyaay, Yaqui, Diné, Kānaka Maoli) together to Palestine.

In 2019, she was honored to be invited on The Red Nation's delegation to Dinétah and Pueblo Territories, which explored themes of border towns, extraction, food deserts, mancamps, MMIWG2+, kinship, culture, and sovereignty.

In 2021, she traveled to Cuba on a delegation with the Interfaith Community Organization with a focus on grassroots community coalitions whose focus ranged from cultural work and advocacy to health infrastructure.

Lenna has a robust background in legal and compliance. She is detail oriented and driven by a passion of social justice for all people, rematriation / Land Back and tackling Environmental Racism at its roots. She believes that, when the people organize they can win.

She currently serves as a lead organizer with Palestinian Youth Movement.

Occupation is no model for DC!

Why is the DC Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) training with Israeli military and police, who recently killed over 130 Palestinians marching for their freedom in Gaza?

We at Occupation Free DC call for an end to these trainings. We advocate for community safety through ending police violence and investing in local resources for DC Metro residents. Please share & sign our petition demanding an end to these trainings.

Our Partners

From the US to Palestine, we know that the path to safety for all is in building joint struggles for justice and showing up to protect and defend one another. That's the exchange—between people's movements rather than policing—that we must grow.

Our campaign is a direct response to the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions call from Palestinian civil society, local DC initiatives like the NEAR ACT, and the Movement For Black Lives Policy Platform call to divest from deadly systems and invest in education, health, and safety of Black people. We also see this campaign as complementary to the defense and expansion of the definition of sanctuary, led by groups like Mijente and Enlace.

Locally, we are working with an incredible group of campaign partners, which are represented below. If you're part of an organization or group, we invite you to endorse the campaign.

Call Script: Hello, I am a DC resident calling for the immediate and unconditional release of all protestors currently detained in a 'kettle' at Swann and 15th St NW. The DC Police, National Guard, and other law enforcement agencies brutally attacked, tear gassed, shot, and arrested our community members. It is not lost on us that it is because we are demanding an end to racist police brutality that we have been met with this extreme violence. I am demanding that Mayor Bowser calls for the release of all protestors being detained and immediately lifts the curfew that directly contributed to this state violence. Release them now.

To anyone witnessing what's happening in Palestine with a desire to do something about it, here's one thing you MUST always do — post about Palestine on social media.

Palestinians in the diaspora and on the ground put their safety on the line to share the horrors of Israel's illegal military occupation and theft of Palestinian land with you. We are doxed. We are censored. We are threatened. We are imprisoned. The least you can do is share our content with the world.

Don't respond, "but what's posting gonna do?" In the case of Palestine, posting on social media matters because mainstream media outlets refuse to truthfully document our stories. Social media is our window to revealing raw footage and truth.

This is such a tired liberal trope. Biden has not lifted a finger to save "democracy" though he certainly lined the pockets of major weapons manufacturers and single-handedly funded Israel's genocide in Gaza. Anyone looking to be saved in an imperial "democracy" is in wonderland.

falastinnah When we rally for freedom, be as forthright as the Palestinians facing occupation soldiers with nothing but stones in their hands. Be as fearless as the freedom fighters who protect their land knowing they will soon be martyred. Bring your rage. We reject the fragmentation of the Palestinian identity. Our fight for freedom extends from Palestine to here—we are one wherever we are. Until liberation and return. 🇵🇸

dmvdissenters 🇺🇸 DC, MARYLAND & VIRGINIA STRIKE & RALLY FOR PALESTINE 🇺🇸

In ONE WEEK, join DMV Dissenters @dmvpym @occupationfreedc @harrietsdreams @md2palestine and @psldc for a rally for Palestine at Union Station to disrupt business as usual in the heart of U.S. empire. Over the last several months, we've witnessed powerful displays of solidarity and direct action from students, unions, journalists, healthcare workers, and more—and we need to ramp up the pressure against the Biden Administration, Congress, and the whole U.S. government given its direct responsibility in Israel's genocidal violence in Gaza.

We have a unique opportunity in DC, the heart of U.S. empire where decisions that promote our genocide are made. As a result, when we disrupt business as usual here—the world sees it—the world feels it. Israel fears us, and our steadfast people in Palestine are proud of us.

PERMANENT CEASEFIRE NOW

Over the past three months, an immediate and permanent ceasefire has been central to PYM's demands. It is a short-term but vital objective that reflects the urgency resulting from the Zionist assault on Gaza.

Over 25,000 Palestinians have been killed, half of whom are children. Over 7,000 people are missing under the rubble and 355,000 homes destroyed as a result of 65,000 tons of bombs dropped by Israel. 1.9 million Palestinians are displaced as part of an ongoing Nakba. All 36 of Gaza's hospitals bombed. Over 600 medical professionals and 100 journalists killed.

A ceasefire—coupled with meaningful, substantial, and sustained humanitarian aid—are essential for ending the people of Gaza's suffering and for post-genocide reconstruction.

Our voices our loud and our power is formidable. The Biden Administration's complicity with Israel's genocide in Gaza will be met with greater pressure from the masses. The violent arms of US government are no match for the people's love for freedom and justice. Millions have taken the streets over the last several months, and by the millions we'll return to a liberated Palestine.

Through people power, we will make genocide untenable for the US government. Through people power, we will continue to #ShutItDown4Palestine and meet our people's demands to:

- ! Lifting the siege of Gaza
- ! Releasing all Palestinian prisoners from Zionist jails

LIFT THE SIEGE ON GAZA NOW

For 17 years the zionist regime has imposed a blockade on Gaza by land, sea and air.

The zionist state controls how much food and medicine enters Gaza, controls Gaza's access to fuel and electricity, and controls who can leave and enter Gaza. The 2.3 million Palestinians in Gaza are living in an open-air prison.

RELEASE ALL PALESTINIAN PRISONERS

Palestinian political prisoners remain the compass of our struggle, both inspiring and actively informing our popular resistance. Our prisoners lead by example, teaching us about the importance of unity and steadfastness.

The violent arms of US government are no match for the people's love for freedom and justice. END THE OCCUPATION NOW Palestinians have experienced over 75 years of settler-colonialism, military occupation, and apartheid. What's happening in Gaza is both a continuation and intensification of colonial violence. Israel has inflicted suffering on Palestinians for decades, but our people have always fought back with dignity, honor, and courage. Our people expose the weak foundations of Israel's settler-colonial apparatus and occupation, which will inevitably be dismantled at the hands of Palestinians—from the river to the sea.

END US COMPLICITY IN ZIONISM

Every year, the United States sends 3.8 billion dollars to fund Israel's crimes against Palestinians and shamelessly provided diplomatic cover. The weapons massacring Palestinians by the thousands are funded by American taxpayer money.

Washington, DC is home to the interests, decisions, and deals that directly enable Israel's numerous, egregious war crimes. DC's roads and sidewalks are frequented by corrupt politicians, bureaucrats, and contractors who profit from the suffering of the Palestinian people, but we know what they will be held accountable.

HANDS OFF YEMEN NOW

The targeting of Yemen by the United States and the United Kingdom—two imperialist states that have wreaked havoc at home and abroad for centuries—is a deliberate attempt to reassert domination over Yemen and the region at large.

Over 100 days into Israel's genocide against Gaza, the US and UK governments have responded with more violence. Yet again, these states would rather mobilize their military might to protect selfish and lowly imperialist interests than to serve their own people.

Their attempts at punishing the few brave nations that dare to stop the wheels of Israel's genocidal operation against our people in Gaza will fail.

Over 20 protestors were arrested in Washington, DC today for blocking traffic to call attention to Israel's ongoing, American-funded genocide in Gaza.

DC law enforcement was caught off guard and struggled to expel and arrest protestors, causing severe traffic jams all throughout the capital and delaying politicians and bureaucrats complicit in Israel's crimes from arriving to work on time today.

Israel is sustained by the political and financial support that emanates from DC—and today that was disrupted.

Our brave comrades held this intersection for two and a half hours to disrupt business as usual for the war criminals working in so-called Congress aiding and abetting Israel's genocide of the Palestinian people.

🇵🇸 We will not stop until our demands are met:

1. A permanent ceasefire;
2. An immediate reinstatement of funding for UNRWA;
3. An immediate end to the 16-year siege on Gaza;
4. An end to all U.S. aid to Israel;
5. Freedom to all Palestinian political prisoners;
6. An end to 76 years of Zionist occupation.
7. Hands off Yemen

This week the House tried to send $18 BILLION more to Israel

jvpdcmetro One week ago, JVP-DC Metro helped @dmvpym @dmvdissenters @harrietsdreams @occupationfreedc @psldc and others shut down 5 main roadways into downtown DC, disrupting the morning commute for government workers.

We continue to demand the United States end its complicity in enabling and providing military funding for the senseless massacres against Palestinians in Gaza. Since October, hundreds of thousands across the country have mobilized consistently to voice their demands that the US cease its support for Israeli war crimes.

For 4 months now, the US has assisted Israel in its campaign of mass murder, a campaign that the International Court of Justice has condemned as genocidal.

The US has spent untold BILLIONS of dollars for endless wars of aggression, as working people of this country suffering from lack of funding for health care, public education, childcare, public housing, and more—but we have a blank check for wars.

We must continue to disrupt until we reach a permanent ceasefire, and then, until Palestine is free.

FEB 1ST DC SHUT DOWN

Washington DC is where corrupt political and financial interests intersect to fuel Israel's genocide in Gaza—but on February 1st, it was put on pause.

Organizers in DC staged a strategic shutdown of 5 major entrances into the city.

These entrances were selected to maximally disrupt the commute of war criminals to their offices at the White House, Department of State, and Congress.

They successfully brought inbound traffic in the US capital—the dying heart of empire—to a complete standstill for almost 2 hours.

OUR COMMUNITY EXEMPLIFIES WHAT IT MEANS TO STAND WITH OUR COMRADES UNTIL THEY ARE ALL FREE

Defiant, determined, and in accordance with their duty in diaspora, 23 protestors were arrested and booked by Capitol Police, Park Police, and DC Metropolitan police following their refusal to disperse.

In the course of the arrests, the community showed up in support of our comrades and rallied outside 4 different jails in which protestors were being held.

When our comrades were transferred to the Central Cell Block to be held overnight, hundreds of community members called the jail demanding their release.

THE WORK IS NOT OVER

Over the duration of the arrests, protestors were racialized in accordance with state violence.

In sites with predominantly white protestors, police were reluctant to arrest, and, if they did, protestors were given post and forfeit and released within a few hours.

In sites that were composed of predominantly marginalized groups, protestors were given escalated charges and even held overnight.

This pattern of arrests and charges are a vile display of how the state attempts to stratify our people by supposed racial and gender categories.

We wholeheartedly condemn this biased and racialized treatment of our comrades.

dmvpym Washington, DC is where corrupt political and financial interests intersect to fuel Israel's genocide in Gaza—but on February 1st, it was put on pause. 5 major entrances into DC were shut down to maximally disrupt the morning commutes of war criminals to their offices at the White House, Department of State, and Congress. 23 protestors were arrested by Capitol Police, Park Police, and the Metropolitan Police Department. The government has yet to drop charges for 16 of the protestors. We call on our community to support the brave February 1 protestors for their support for Palestinian liberation!

Attend the virtual court hearings and change your name to "Support for Palestine Protestors" because as @harrietsdreams says: injustice happens in empty courtrooms.
