STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

JIM HOOD
ATTORNEY GENERAL

CIVIL LITIGATION DIVISION

May 20, 2013

Via E-mail

Jonathan Ben-Asher, Esq.
Ritz Clark & Ben-Asher LLP
40 Exchange Place – Suite 2010
New York, N.Y. 10005
Jben-asher@RCBALaw.com

RE: Bruce D. Bernstein, Esq.

Dear Mr. Ben-Asher:

This letter is being written to you in your capacity as counsel to one of our former counsel, Mr. Bruce Bernstein. It concerns confidential information Bruce learned as our counsel. In addition, I consider you covered by this confidentiality as well since I was compelled to communicate with Bruce's counsel having learned of your representation. We expect that Bruce and you maintain the confidentiality of this letter and its contents.

Mississippi, like most states, has constitutional officers and offices, as well as statutorily created state agencies and executive divisions that are all part of the state government. The Mississippi Attorney General is a constitutional officer, Miss. Const. 1890 §173. The Mississippi Public Employees Retirement System is a state agency of Mississippi, created pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. §25-11-1, et seq. (1972). By virtue of the powers bestowed upon the Attorney General by the State's Constitution, statutes, and common law, "the role of the Attorney General apropos of a State agency" is not "precisely akin to the traditional role of private counsel apropos of a client." State ex rel. Allain v. Miss. Pub. Serv. Comm'n, 418 So. 2d 779, 782 (1982) (quoting with approval EPA v. Pollution Control Board, 372 N.E.2d 50, 52-53 (Ill. 1977)). To the contrary, "[t]he authority of the Attorney General, as chief law officer, to assume primary control over the conduct of litigation which involves the interests of the Commonwealth has the concomitant effect of creating a relationship with the State officers he represents that is not constrained by the parameters of the traditional attorney-client relationship." Allain, 418 So. 2d at 783 (quoting Feeney v. Commonwealth, 366 N.E.2d 1262, 1266 (Mass. 1977)).

As a consequence, the Attorney General has complete authority over litigation, such as those matters Bruce worked on, that are brought on behalf of the State as well as all state entities. The Attorney General does not require the Mississippi Public Employees' Retirement System ("MPERS") and other state agencies to make decisions regarding the prosecution of such cases. Therefore, the Attorney General serves not only as counsel to the State, but is the State for purposes of litigation.

It has come to our attention that Bruce has threatened to commence a lawsuit based on confidential information that he learned as counsel to Mississippi, and its agency MPERS. We understand that he plans to allege in public court papers that agents of Mississippi, and its agency MPERS — namely, its outside counsel — engaged in impropriety in connection with the engagement of a Mississippi lawyer and the award of attorneys' fees in the Satyam litigation.

Specifically, we understand that you plan to allege (or otherwise litigate) that a lawyer in Mississippi was improperly engaged and paid by lead counsel in Satyam, and that lead counsel's fee application did not disclose, but should have disclosed, in the fee application the identity of every lawyer and firm that performed work for the class and was to receive, even indirectly, any part of the proceeds of the fee award in that case, even though the Local Rule in the Southern District of New York that formerly required such disclosure had been rescinded before the fee application in Satyam was filed.

We find this troubling as Bruce was counsel for Mississippi and its agency MPERS; he was personally involved in drafting and revising the fee application papers; he was aware that a judgment was made by every law firm involved — including lead counsel for Mississippi and its agency MPERS — that it was unnecessary to submit affidavits from, or otherwise disclose, those lawyers who were not named class counsel on the case and were to be paid out of a client approved fixed contingent fee lead counsel's award; he was aware that no additional fee award was being sought for the work of these lawyers; and yet Bruce never brought this to the attention of the Court at the time — or since — nor did he ever bring this to the attention of Mississippi. Bruce is also aware — or would have been, if he had bothered to consult me — that it is a policy of the State of Mississippi and its agencies to engage local counsel in litigation and, in particular, a policy of this office to provide work to qualified minority attorneys such as the local counsel in the Satyam case; that the engagement of the Mississippi lawyer was in accordance with Mississippi law; and that this counsel is involved in other complex litigation for Mississippi. As part of the Attorney General's power over litigation involving state agencies, the Attorney General has control over the selection of outside counsel to represent state agencies. "The case law and statutes make it unquestionably clear that he is the state's chief legal officer and is charged with managing all litigation on behalf of the state. Moreover, no state agency may employ legal counsel without the prior approval of the attorney general and any such special legal counsel appointed performs their duties under the supervision and control of the attorney general and serves at his pleasure and may be dismissed by him.” Allain, 418 So. 2d at 782 (emphasis added).

Further, Bruce never suggested to anyone from Mississippi that he perceived anything amiss about the engagement of this lawyer in Satyam, yet he plans to assert that it constituted misconduct — which it did not — in his employment lawsuit seeking money damages. Not only am I troubled as a fellow attorney of what Bruce has threatened to do, I cannot fathom that during the countless discussions that he and I had about the various matters he worked on for us, including Satyam, all of the friendly talks that we have had and the discussions of Bruce’s nuptials, he never once mentioned anything to me about concerns he supposedly now has. Additionally, I considered Bruce to be a friend. I was disappointed to learn on my most recent visit to New York that he was not there when I came by to visit.

For Bruce to make such claims in public court papers for his personal profit over an employment dispute could subject Mississippi and its agency MPERS in a negative light. As counsel for the State of Mississippi, its agency MPERS, and on behalf of the State of Mississippi and its agency MPERS, I am directing Bruce not to disclose any confidential information he learned as counsel to Mississippi and its agency MPERS. It is highly likely others could (or will) attempt to use this information against Mississippi in future litigation or otherwise, just as Bruce is attempting to use it for his benefit in his threatened lawsuit. Please be advised that the foregoing direction to Bruce and you to preserve the confidentiality of all information Bruce learned in representing Mississippi and its agency MPERS comes from the State of Mississippi and MPERS itself.

We welcome Bruce contacting me directly to discuss these matters and any further concerns he may have.

Very truly yours,

George W. Neville
Special Assistant Attorney General

Cc: Bruce D. Bernstein, Esq.

RETENTION AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi has determined that claims (the “Claims”) should be brought against Mylan N.V. (“Mylan” or the “Company”) and other corporations, firms, or persons that may be found to be liable as a result of losses sustained by the Mississippi Public Employees’ Retirement System (“Mississippi PERS”) relating to Mylan securities; and

WHEREAS, the Attorney General has authority to bring an action asserting the Claims on her own behalf and/or on behalf of the State’s subdivisions, including Mississippi PERS, pursuant to Miss. Code § 7-5-7, et seq., further, acting as a constitutional officer possessing all the power and authority inherited from the common law as well as that specially conferred upon her by statute, the Attorney General has the right to institute, conduct, and maintain an action in order to enforce the U.S. securities laws, including pursuing claims on behalf of Mississippi PERS arising under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, the Securities Act of 1933, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and

WHEREAS, the Attorney General has determined that the investigation, research, and litigation of the Claims may require the expenditure of large sums of money and require work over an extended period of time by numerous lawyers, paralegals, and others who are familiar with Mylan and related entities and individuals and their potentially wrongful actions and/or inactions and related issues; and

WHEREAS, the Attorney General has further determined that, as discussed in Exhibit A, it is in the best interests of the State and its citizens that the State retain attorneys experienced in investigating and prosecuting securities class actions to pursue the Claims; and

WHEREAS, Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP (the “Law Firm”) is experienced in investigating and prosecuting securities class actions, has the resources to vigorously prosecute the Claims, and has consented to represent Mississippi PERS respecting the Claims and pursuant to the terms and conditions hereof,

IT IS, ACCORDINGLY, AGREED as follows:

1. The Office of the Attorney General hereby retains the Law Firm, and Law Firm Partner Gerald H. Silk is hereby designated as Special Assistant Attorney General, to investigate, research, and file the Claims in any appropriate court or courts. The Attorney General also authorizes the Law Firm to seek the appointment of Mississippi PERS as the lead representative plaintiff in the class action and the appointment of the Law Firm as Lead Class Counsel.

2. The Attorney General does not relinquish her constitutional or statutory authority or responsibility through this Retention Agreement. If appointed as lead plaintiff by the Court, the Attorney General shall have the sole authority to settle this litigation on behalf of the class, and the Law Firm shall apprise the Attorney General of all settlement offers. The Law Firm shall consult with the Attorney General and obtain her approval on all material matters pertinent to the Claims.

The Attorney General and Mississippi PERS shall cooperate with the Law Firm in the prosecution of the Claims, including by providing documents to substantiate Mississippi PERS' alleged loss, and to cooperate in providing discovery information, including deposition testimony, if Mississippi PERS is appointed lead plaintiff. The Attorney General shall use her best efforts to secure the cooperation of other State agencies and subdivisions. Prior to filing the Claims, the Attorney General and the Law Firm will agree upon entities and individuals to be named as defendants and/or Claims to be pursued, and the Law Firm will thereafter be entitled to its reasonable fees and expenses, as provided below, based upon any recovery from such agreed-upon defendants as a consequence of the Law Firm's prosecution of the Claims. The Attorney General is not required, however, to assign any member of her staff to pursue the Claims, but may from time to time afford staff and other support services as the Attorney General deems appropriate.

3. The Attorney General and the Law Firm both recognize that the Claims present numerous factual and legal obstacles and that no assurance of success on the Claims has been or can be made.

4. The Attorney General shall maintain responsibility for the public distribution of information concerning this matter. All press inquiries shall be referred to the Attorney General for comment and response.

5. Notwithstanding the potential difficulties, the Law Firm has agreed to represent the State on a fully contingent basis, and the Attorney General hereby agrees that the Law Firm will be compensated for recoveries by the State of Mississippi and the class on the following basis:

- A. Recovery of Attorneys' Fees: The sole contingency upon which the Law Firm shall be compensated is a recovery in this litigation, whether by settlement or judgment. The amount of the Law Firm's compensation shall be determined by the Court. The Law Firm shall seek compensation in the form of a percentage of the recovery achieved for the class, net of expenses, and the Law Firm shall limit the percentage sought to the percentage corresponding to Mississippi PERS' estimated individual recovery set forth in Exhibit B attached hereto, plus reasonable and necessary costs as defined below. Any fee that the Law Firm wishes to request shall be subject to the consent of the Mississippi AG and the approval of the Court. In the event that the Claims are resolved by settlement under terms involving any "in-kind" payment, such as stock, the contingent fee agreement shall apply to such "in-kind" payment.
- B. Reasonable and Necessary Costs and Expenses: The Law Firm shall advance all costs and expenses related to the Claims including, but not limited to, any costs and expenses incurred by Mississippi PERS and the Attorney General related to depositions or any other legal proceedings it is advised by the Law Firm to attend. Mississippi PERS and the Attorney General will not pay any costs and expenses incurred in connection with the investigation and prosecution of the Claims. Recovery of any costs and expenses by the Law Firm is contingent upon a recovery being obtained. Reasonable and necessary costs and expenses include, but are not limited to, those relating to court fees, travel, depositions, investigators, paralegals, computer research, experts, consultants, accounting, and the retention of additional temporary support counsel, as needed. Such costs and expenses shall be approved by the Attorney General, shall initially be borne entirely by the Law Firm, which may seek reimbursement from the Court from any gross recoveries secured through pursuit of the Claims.

C. The Law Firm shall receive no compensation or reimbursement other than set out above. In the event that no recovery is realized, the Law Firm shall receive no compensation or reimbursement.

6. With the approval of the Attorney General, the Law Firm may associate with other attorneys at its own expense and at no cost to the State of Mississippi. Notwithstanding such association of other attorneys, this Retention Agreement is non-assignable and non-transferable, nor are the Law Firm's commitments delegable without the express, written approval of the Attorney General.

7. The Law Firm and any other attorneys with which it associates shall, from the date hereof until not less than four (4) years after this litigation is terminated, maintain detailed current records, including documentation of all expenses, disbursements, charges, credits, underlying receipts, and invoices, and other financial transactions that concern the provision of attorney services related to the Claims. In addition, the Law Firm shall maintain detailed contemporaneous time records for the attorneys and paralegals working on the matter in increments of no greater than one-tenth (1/10) of an hour, and shall promptly provide these records to the Attorney General upon request.

DETERMINATION OF NEED FOR CONTINGENCY FEE REPRESENTATION

The Attorney General has determined that use of outside counsel is cost-effective, in the public interest and necessary to investigate and potentially pursue claims against Mylan N.V. and related defendants, which may have engaged in certain unlawful conduct, including, but not limited to, violations of the federal securities laws. Use of outside counsel is necessary because: there does not exist sufficient and appropriate legal and financial resources within the Attorney General's office to handle the matter; the time and labor required necessitates the retention of outside counsel; the novelty, complexity, and difficulty of the questions involved are within the expertise of outside counsel, who in fact possessed the knowledge necessary to discover this issue in the first instance, and the skill requisite to perform the attorney services properly prohibit our office from being able to efficiently do it in-house. The geographic area where the attorney services are to be provided is expansive because of the diverse locations of the defendants, their operations, and the potential witnesses. Outside counsel has the amount and type of experience needed, having worked on a number of complex federal securities class actions on behalf of state and local government pension plans.

EXHIBIT B

1. The Law Firm shall be entitled to request Court approval of a contingency fee that will in no event exceed 25% of the total recovery achieved for the class, net of expenses, and will be consistent with Section 7-5-8 (2) Miss. Code Ann as it applies to the individual pro rata recovery achieved for Mississippi PERS. Consistent with applicable law, the contingency fee that the Law Firm ultimately will be permitted to request following the conclusion of the litigation shall be subject to the consent of the Attorney General, who shall consider the risks of the litigation, the fees awarded in similar securities class action litigation, the result achieved, the skill required and the quality of work performed, and other relevant factors, in approving any request for an award of attorneys' fees submitted to the Court. At the conclusion of the litigation, the Law Firm is required to submit to the Attorney General relevant factual and legal support justifying their requested contingency fee and the Attorney General will consider that submission in determining the percentage contingency fee that the Law Firm will be permitted to request as it relates to the total class recovery.
2. The contingency fee shall in no way be based on any penalties or civil fines awarded or any amounts attributable to penalties or civil fines.
